at 80 Wall street. The fish weighed 18 pounds.

Mr. Rabassa was one of a party of anglers with Capi, Fred Gippert and in Sandy Hook Horseshee the fishermen caught weakfish, fluke and croakers.

The party did not make a big catch, but they did get big fish, croakers that weighed 4 and 5 pounds each, big fluke and weakfish of 5, 5, 7 and 8 pounds. The 8 pound weakfish was much admired until Mr. Rabassa got his 16 pounder.

Bloodworms, shedder crab, shrimp and clams were used for bait. The big weakfish lost his liberty when he tackled the bloodworm tidbit.

The greatest interest centred in the big fish not only by fishermen in the beat but also when Mr. Rabassa reached shore and walked to Collins's Hotel, where he was asked nineteen times by actual counts.

season. When the fish is mounted it will find a place on the wall of Ferrer & Rabassa, and doubtless for a long time visitors to the office at 80 Well street will ask Mr. Rabassa to tell them how it happened.

Weakfish Biting Again in Jamaica Bay.

Acting under orders of the harbor pairol all the fishing boats composing the Sheepshead Bay fieet fished along the New Jersey coast on Sunday, no boats being allowed to go to the eastward.

No boat came back boasting of its catches, but take it all in all there were fair messes of sea bass, with blackfish and fluke, brought into the landing places.

Perhaps He Is a Truth Teller.

I do not know whether Joseph W. Sharp, of W. C. Popper & Co., 114 Worth streat, is a fisherman or a truth teller, but here is what he told me to-day and he says hundreds of people will verify his statement. Listen. He is spending week ends at the Atiantic Highlands. Listen. The storm Sonday afternoon did not strike that place as much as it did Coney Island and Staten Island. Listen. The storm drove great schools of fish to the Jersey shore of the lower bay. Listen. People who went into the water for a bath came out with a rush and yells. Listen.

They were scared by immense schools of fish big fellows and little fellows. Listen. Some of the people kicked fish out of the water to the beach. When I asked Mr. Sharp if he was an eyewitness to all this he admitted he was not but had heard people talking about it on the boat coming to Manhattan this A. M. He did not know what kind of fish they were as he did not ask any questions. Listen. He says he merely listened to the stories and swallowed them as the credulous American citizen he is.

Now I would like to know something more about what Mr. Sharp believes occurred. There certainly should be some one who can verify his statement if there is a peg to hang it on.

It was certainly surprising to see these two big placid men instantly leap into activity with the advent of the monsters and tackle them so cleverly, and just as amusing to see them retapse into their customary repose after it was all over.

BETLESS TROTTING OPENS AT DETROIT

All Speculation Barred at Grand Circuit Races-Enrly Dreams Wins.

DETROIT, July 23.—For the first time in the history of Grand Circuit racing here a betless meeting was started to day. Police Commissioner Contains in tively refused to allow speculation in any form and sent out uniformed policemen to see that the mutuel machines dismantled and the auctioners were dismantled and the auctioneer properly gagged. It was understoo around the old betting ring, however that the betting methods of former meetings would be in operation just outside the grounds to-morrow. The principal event, the Pontchartrain rushed Early Dreams out in front at the start and held the lead all the way around, though Lu Princeton falled only by inches to take the heat and race.
